Fort Collins, CO

Captain 381st Inf Co F

Bollinger, Willard G. "Bill" suddenly, on Monday, March 5th, 2007, while vacationing in Palm Springs, California. His family was at his side.

Beloved father of Judy and JoAnne Bollinger, dearest grandpa to Joshua, all of Ft. Collins, CO; and loving companion to Susan M. Goodman; and devoted friend to many. Bill graduated from Albright College in Reading, PA with a degree in business.

He served in the 96th Infantry Division during WW II. For his outstanding military merit, heroism and gallantry in action, he received a Purple Heart, a Silver and Bronze Star Medals. He was very proud to have served his country, and was honorably discharged from the Army as a Captain.

He began a career in the insurance industry as a broker and after 45 years in the business retired in 1989 from Powers, Carpenter & Hall, Inc. as Vice President and Senior Consultant. He enjoyed traveling and playing golf with his many friends and Grandson.

He was an avid fan of the Cardinals and Rams. Services. Burial will be at Jefferson Barracks Cemetery, 2900 Sheridan Rd., St. Louis, MO., 63125, on Friday, April 20th at 11:00 a.m. Friends are invited to a celebration of Bill's life on Saturday, April 21st, 1-4 p.m. at the Westborough Country Club, 631 S. Berry Road, St. Louis, MO 63122. In lieu of flowers, donations are appreciated in Bill's memory, to the John Cochran V.A. Medical Center, Attn: Volunteer Services, 915 North Grand Ave., St. Louis, Missouri, 63106.
