

NO PHOTO Novak, Louis A
Temple City, CA
383rd Co L

NOVAK, Louis A., M.D., 75, of Pasadena, died peacefully at home on December 15, 1999 of cancer. Born in Streator, Illinois, met his wife Kathryn Hempel at Valparaiso University, Indiana, served in the 96th Infantry in the Leyte and Okinawa invasions, earning the Bronze Star. Graduated from USC and the College of Osteopathic Physicians and Surgeons, practiced in Pasadena, Arcadia and San Gabriel as a surgeon and family doctor for 37 years.

Survived by Kathryn, his loving wife of 53 years; his five children, Laura (David) Rusch of Culver City, David (Charlene) of Bartlesville, Oklahoma, Philip (Patricia) of Temple City, Daniel (Geraldyn) of Arcadia, Martha (John) Hoffman, of Wellington, New Zealand; ten grandchildren; sister, Leona Klima of Temple City, and half-brother Ronald Novak of Streator, Illinois.

A memorial service will be held on Monday, December 20, 11:00 am at his cherished First Lutheran Church of Temple City, 9123 E. Broadway.