

Ronzio, Charles

Ontario, Canada

383rd Infantry

RONZIO, Charles S. - September 10, 1922 - February 15, 2007. Died peacefully, at home, surrounded by his family, on Thursday, February 15, 2007.

Charlie was born September 10, 1922 in St. Louis Missouri. Predeceased by his sister, Theresa Ceriotti and his brother, Joseph.

Charlie was the beloved husband of Rose for 56 years. He was the loving father to Charles Louis (Mary Tease), Barbara Arnau (Mike), Michael (Pauline Sweeny) and Teresa Ronzio (Phil Hennelly). Charlie was the loving grandfather to Christina, Charles (Sunni), Joe, Stephanie, Patrick, David, Katherine and Emily.

Charlie served in the United States Infantry during the Second World War in the Pacific Theatre.

Charlie and Rose moved to Kitchener in 1957 when Charlie opened the Canadian subsidiary of Hager Hinge Company and was employed by them for 47 years in St. Louis and Kitchener. He was a member and past president of the Kitchener-Waterloo Serra Club and a member of the Kitchener Knights of Columbus, a founding member of St. Francis Parish.

Friends are invited to share their memories of Charlie with his family during visitation at the Ratz-Bechtel Funeral Home, 621 King St. W. Kitchener, today (Friday) from 2-4 and 7-9 p.m. where parish prayers will be recited at 8:45 p.m. A funeral mass will be held on Saturday from St. Francis Church at 10 a.m. with Fr. Joseph de Viveiros C.R. officiating. Interment will be in Woodland Cemetery.
