MONTICELLO - Anthony Lawrence "Tony" Pavel, Jr., 67, of Route 3, died at 2:45 PM Thursday [Aug. 26, 1993] in White County Memorial Hospital. Born Dec. 16 1925, at Chicago, IL, he graduated from Linblom High School in Chicago 1943, and from Purdue University in 1950. He married Mary A. Hilton on May 28, 1949, at Reynolds, and she survives.

Mr. Pavell served in the Army during World War II, where he received the Bronze Star with two Oak Leaf Clusters and the Purple Heart for injuries sustained in the Philippines.

He was a licensed professional engineer and land surveyor. He had worked four years as an engineer with the Jasper County Highway Department, and 38 years with the Indiana State Highway Department, retiring in 1988. He was a member of Our Savior Lutheran Church in Monticello, was past president of the 96th Infantry Division Association, a life member of Monticello VFW and DAV, and the American Legion Post. He had formerly lived in Indianapolis and Rensselaer, returning to Monticello in 1976.

Surviving with his wife are a son, Lawrence Lee Pavell of Carpentersville, IL; two daughters, Cathy Louise (Mrs. Peter) Dyer of Monticello and Nancy (Mrs. Clark) Raver of Jasper; two sisters, Emily (Mrs. Charles) Robbins of Brookston and Anina Shandy of Lombard, IL; and two grandchildren.
