

KOMPF, ROBERT E

Robert E. Kompf October 31, 2010 Robert E. Kompf, 85, of Onondaga Hill, passed away Sunday at Van Duyn Home and Hospital, Syracuse.

Born in Syracuse, he was a self-employed TV repairman and was also employed by Channel 9.

He was a member of the Valley American Legion and was a WWII combat Army veteran with two Purple Hearts. He fought in the Philippines, Okinawa and Leyte.

He was predeceased by his daughter-in-law, Rita Kompf; and sister, Mary Matthews. Survivors include his wife of 57 years, Lillian; four daughters and two sons, Linda Schoonmaker, Sandra (Al) Stone, Elizabeth Kompf, Nancy (Hans) VonHausen, Joseph (Shirley) and John; 13 grandchildren; five great-grandchildren; brother-in-law, John Matthews; and his sister-in-law, Mary Sovie.

Calling hours will be 4 to 7 p.m. Thursday, November 4, 2010, at Butler-Badman Funeral Home, Inc., 4504 W. Seneca Turnpike, Syracuse, NY 13215. The funeral service will be at 10 a.m. Friday, November 5, at St. Michael's -St. Peter's Church, 4782 W. Seneca Turnpike, Syracuse, NY 13215. Burial will be at the Onondaga County Veterans Cemetery. Contributions may be made, in lieu of flowers, to the church or the Onondaga Hill Fire Dept. Butler-Badman Funeral Home www.butlerbadmanfuneralhome.com